APD Officer to be honored at 100 Club of Central Texas Awards Banquet

The 100 Club of Central Texas will host its annual award banquet at 6 p.m. on Friday, May 15, 2009, at the Texas Disposal System's Exotic Game Ranch, 12200 Carl Road in Buda.

The event honors first responders whose actions and contributions have made a positive impact in Central Texas communities.

Officer Will Ray will be the recipient of an Outstanding First Responder award. Ginger MacMicking, Executive Vice President of The 100 Club states, "The Awards Banquet is held each year for those first responders exhibiting exemplary acts above and beyond their normal day-to-day duties. More often than not, one peace officer, firefighter and/or EMS technician acts in extraordinary ways that deserve even greater recognition."

Austin Police Officer Will Ray is among Law Enforcement personnel from five counties nominated for the outstanding first responder awards. The recipient of the Officer of the Year award will be named at the event.

The 100 Club of Central Texas is a non-profit charitable organization providing financial, legal and emotional support to families of first responders who are killed in the line of duty. The Club's area of coverage includes Travis, Hays, Bastrop, Williamson and Caldwell Counties.
